"Pirates Of Penzance" At L-W Nov. 6, 7 and 8

"The Pirates of Penzance," one of the delightful light operas by Gilbert and Sullivan, is to be presented in the Lincoln-Way high school auditorium tomorrow and Friday nights, and Sunday afternoon. The night performances are scheduled for 8 o'clock. Curtain time Sunday will be 2 o'clock.

The production will be staged by the music department of the school, under the direction of Tom Olson, who has charge of vocal music at Lincoln-Way.

Some 50 members of the music department will comprise the cast. The principals are Dan Owen, Lincolnwood; Prudence Rowe, of New Lenox; Margie Ardaugh, Manhattan; Robert Breidert, Frankfort; Bryan Smith, Manhattan and Larry Lubway, New Lenox.

Last year the Lincoln-Way music students presented another Gilbert and Sullivan production, "H.M.S. Pinafore," and it was so well received that this year they elected to stage "The Pirates of Penzance."

The grandparents of the youngsters who are appearing in "The Pirates of Penzance" probably are more familiar with the works of Gilbert and Sullivan (Sir William and Sir Arthur) than current generations.

Wit and dash are the words commonly used to describe the book (Gilbert was the librettist) and the same description is often given of the music (Sullivan was the composer). There is a lot of melody too in Sullivan's tunes and they were whistled and hummed thru the '80's, the '90's and past the first decade of the present century.

The Gilbert and Sullivan pieces were written as satires of grand opera, satires of social usage and a sharp criticism of customs and procedures of the British government and politicians. The works have been tremendously popular and brought fame and fortune to their creators. Richard D'Oyly Carte built the Savoy theater in London especially for light operas and beginning in 1882 produced all of the Gilbert and Sullivans.

The Richard D'Oyly Carte company of London is still producing Gilbert and Sullivan shows in London every season and they still draw packed houses. This group--the last word in Gilbert and Sullivan productions--tours the United States and Canada at intervals and draw capacity audiences.

Most people who hear it find the music delightful and enjoy the wit of the words. Gilbert and Sullivan introduced the patter song which composers of popular music find is the greatest invention since the piano.

The Lincoln-Way cast looks good in rehearsal and should give good performances, observers report. Tickets may be purchased from any of the 200 choral students or by calling these numbers: New Lenox 3951; Manhattan--GR 8-3453; Mokena 3733 and Frankfort 5222. In Joliet they are on sale at the Fowler Piano Co.

Proceeds from the Sunday matinee will be turned over to the Parent Teacher Group for the organ fund it is raising.

Want To Perform? Frankfort Legion Seeks Talent For Show

This Sunday, Nov. 8, is the final deadline for tryouts for the talent show. Those in charge of the affair are eager to get a big turnout.

They have the "wanted" sign hung out for practically everyone--men, women, boys and girls, singles, doubles, trio, groups and applicants may range in age from seven to 70.

Asks Can Gas Tax Be Spent To Build Sidewalks

(CNS) The Cook County board is awaiting a state opinion on a question that is also of interest to municipalities--can gas tax funds be spent for sidewalks where there are none along highways.

Gas tax money can now be used for sidewalk construction under at least two conditions, it was pointed out:

- (1) As part of new highway construction.
- (2) As part of rebuilding or widening of roads.

William J. Mortimer, county highway superintendent, told the county board that if the law is interpreted to give the county authority to use such funds to build sidewalks where none exist now along highways then villages should be able to do likewise along arterial streets and roads.

Building sidewalks has been a responsibility of property owners. Most subdivision ordinances now carry provisions that require the subdivider to put in sidewalks, curbs and gutters along with paved streets, water and sewer mains. In the past in built up portions of cities and villages sidewalks were built or replaced by special assessment, a process that regarded as outmoded now because of the difficulty in disposing of special assessment bonds. Municipalities are not required to build streets or sidewalks out of its tax revenues, and some authorities contend that tax money cannot be expended for such purposes.

Gas tax funds, if they can be spent on sidewalks along arterial streets, would give municipalities a source of money for such improvements, it was explained.

The problem of roads without sidewalks was brought up by Commissioner Charles F. Chaplin, who said that recent traffic fatalities in Northfield township, near Glenview might have been prevented had sidewalks been available. He referred to the five children who were killed by autos in a four week period on roads without sidewalks.

Commissioner John J. Duffy, chairman of the finance committee, said serious consideration must be given for it appears to him that the county could be "laying itself open to many personal injury suits that can arise when people injure themselves while using the sidewalks."

Legion Post Starts Drive For Members

Bobzin-Swinford Post, No. 1098 American Legion, at Frankfort, is launching a full scale membership drive this month, it was announced by Commander Frank Follisi.

The Frankfort drive is calculated to fit into the statewide membership campaign planned by the Legion. November has been proclaimed by Gov. William G. Stratton as Veterans Recognition Month.

During the drive the Bobzin-Swinford post will have membership teams canvassing the entire village.

"Our goal," said Commander Follisi, "is 100 per cent membership for the post for 1960 and we intend to finish the job by the end of November."

Team captains named by the commander are Glenn Burkett, Donald Carroll, Dan Hecht and Orville Schinkowski. Membership chairman, Senior Vice Commander William Batson, will be in charge of the campaign.

The post recently purchased a wheel chair and walker, of the folding type, which is now quartered at the Hedges clinic. The equipment is for free use by the public and can be obtained by calling Howard Osmus at the Clinic.

"Y" Offers 'Slim' Course

"Slim by Christmas!" That's the battle cry of the weight reducing class which will begin to wage war on excess pounds Monday, November 9 at the Southwest Suburban Y.M.C.A. at 94th and Knox streets, in Oak Lawn.

Under the direction of Miss Gerry Moynahan, fashion stylist, local women will have an opportunity to lose weight, establish will power, improve health, personal charm and happiness thru an eight week diet club program.

Some of the ladies in the spring course lost more than 20 pounds and a corresponding number of inches.

Frankfort Awards Contracts For Sewers, Treatment Plant

A study of the sewer bids at Frankfort revealed a substantial error in the figure submitted by Blaine Saxton, of Mokena, so that instead of being lowest of the low three he became the highest of that number and the contract for laying the lateral and interceptor mains has been awarded to D'Andrea Construction Co. of Joliet.

Contract for the sewage treatment plant was awarded to Gaskill and Walton, of Crete. The awards were made at the regular meeting of the Frankfort village board on Monday night.

Bids on the sewer and the treatment plant were opened a week ago Monday night and then referred to Village Engineer Robert Hamilton for tabulation and report. Hamilton made his report to the board this week.

It shows that Saxton had made an error in his figures of $11,500 so instead of being low with figure of approximately $217,00 he was third with $229,165.42.

D'Andrea's bid was $218,580.65 and Hulett Corporation, of Oak Forest, was second with $225,919.69.

Gaskill and Walton's bid on the sewage treatment plant was reduced from $167,290 to $163,025 by elimination of a grinding device which is not essential, the engineer said, to the efficient operation of the plant.

Adding the figures for the two improvements gives a total of $381,605, which is some $3,000 under the engineer's estimate.

Wigert Construction was second on the treatment plant with a basic bid of $174,668; Shamrock Engineering was third with a figure of $174,153 and Lindblad Construction, the firm that built Mokena's sewage treatment plant, was next with a bid of $173,352.

Disposal of sanitary wastes is a problem in suburban communities now mushrooming in growth. Engineers point out that the suburbs have outgrown septic systems and many communities that have jurisdiction over subdivisions within a mile and a half of their boundaries require subdividers to install

FUTURE TEACHERS.--an association made up of high school students is an organization that educators look upon as a source of instructors for the future. A great many of those who belong to FTA finally emerge as teachers. Last week they held a regional conference and workshop at Lyons township high school, Western Springs. The theme for the workshop (and the year) was "Quest for Quality." These youngsters not only want to become teachers, but good teachers. Among the delegation from Lincoln-Way were the two young women shown here, Judy Mulligan (left) a leader of one of the seven discussion groups, and Cathie Beattie, who was one of the workshop speakers. (L-W photo) sewage treatment plants as well as sewer and water lines.

Orland Park is getting ready to install sanitary sewers and New Lenox has been given hope that it too can afford a water and sewer system. New Lenox was given a figure in excess of $2-million for a combination system by a firm of engineers who made a survey of the area and prepared a set of plans. New Lenox is now talking with other engineers and it is understood to have an estimate of costs much lower than that submitted.

Orland Park and Tinley Park have an advantage over Will county towns in that they are part of the Chicago sanitary district and as such do not have to include a treatment plant in their sewer systems, it was pointed out.

Marley Call Bond Election For Nov. 14 For New School

BY VIRGINIA SASS
New Lenox 3133
Residents of the Marley school district, No. 125 will vote Nov. 14 on a bond issue proposed to finance the building of new school. The bond issue is $30,000, according to Albert H. Krusemark, attorney for the board of school directors, and the polling place.

The present school on the north side of U. S. 6, will be open from 12 noon to 7 p.m.

The directors are faced with this problem: The present school is crowded with a 31 enrollment. By next fall the enrollment is expected to reach 40 and will continue to climb. The directors point out that to meet this situation a new, two-room school is needed by next fall.

They plan to acquire a new site, east of the Wabash railroad and south of Maple street that runs thru Marley. Most of the youngsters who attend or will attend the school live south of U.S. 6, it was explained. Supt. Crackel recommended a site of three acres as a minimum.

There are two subdivisions developed in the vicinity of Marley that will add to the school's enrollment so that four years from now a larger school probably will be needed.

The valuation of the district at the present time is between $600,000 and $650,000. The district has no bonds outstanding so it can bond up to five per cent of its valuation.

For all practical purposes this would enable the district to issue $30,000 of bonds. Supt. Crackel informed the directors that when a district bonds up to the limit it usually requires a tax rate of 25 to 30 cents per $100 equalized assessed valuation to retire the obligation and meet interest payment.

The directors believe they can acquire a site and build a two-room school for the $30,000.

The Marley Woman's club will meet on Thursday afternoon, Nov. 12 at the home of Mrs. Royal Corp. Mrs. John Riley will be the assisting hostess. The program topic will be "A Thanksgiving Scrapbook".

Business & Finance

BY MAURICE P. ANGLAND

The steel strike which at its inception more than three months ago, was expected to be of short duration by many usually well informed analysts, is still inconclusive. Kaiser Steel has broken the major steel firms united front by signing with the union.

As to wage demands the employers and union have not been far apart, but the steel makers work rule changes which they claim would rid them of feather bedding or paying them of feather bedding or payment for labor not done or unnecessary under modern conditions.

Using the Kaiser settlement as an example, steel workers will not recoup their strike losses for many years. The work rules changes are to come before a board of arbitration for consideration. The rapid progress in improvement of production methods has brought with it a fear of employment loss by certain of the labor force because of such production changes. Protection against normal shifting of the work force has been written into labor contracts of years ago. Conditions under which the contracts were written have, in many cases, completely changed.

However, so many industrial activities are now effected by these conditions and over-all costs to the economy, of carrying such excess labor costs, that a change will come about in spite of objections. However, big union competition for power being what it is, no single union leader dares capitulate on this point unless he is desirous of retiring as a labor leader.

Undoubtedly, Congress will take some positive action on these industry strikes as the cost to the whole country is too high to be allowed to continue in its present pattern. It is obvious that labor leaders are prisoners of their own power and dare not meet these problems individually. Competition between leaders is too keen.

Action by Congress to take action that would take these leaders "off the hook" on some of these problems, would likely be welcomed by these union leaders. Price competition is becoming very keen in most industries and the European "common market" will bring about more of the American type mass production type of production with lower unit costs. Most of the large steel firms are either building or planning on building new plants employing the oxygen process of steel making. This changes manufacturing processes considerably and reduces costs.

These firms must generate a large part of the funds for these improvements from their own earnings since the long term bond market now makes borrowing expensive and more difficult to handle. Labor leaders are largely well informed men, but like anyone else holding important political office -- before they can become

Outlines Cooperative Program

By ANNE RODGER

At the present census figures, a total of 1,266 children in the area served by the 16 school districts in the Southwest Cook County Association for Special Education, will require special help.

This information was given to members of school boards and the school superintendents in the respective districts by the director of the special education program, Stanley B. Singer, at a recent meeting held in the Central school Tinley Park, who had convened to hear a report on the program since it was initiated.

The speaker, Walter Fierke, superintendent of Tinley Park public schools, which is the administrative district, reviewed the progress made since the first meeting of 11 area school superintendents was held to discuss the possibility of forming a cooperative program of special education in November of 1958.

ESTABLISH CLASSES

What Fierke described as a "herculean" task by the director, has resulted in the establishment of two classes for the educable mentally handicapped (EMH), one in Worth and the other in the Midlothian school.

Credited with the unprecedented operation of special education classes in such a short time, is the fact that the Worth school had been operating such a class and two teachers were available.

Special education is a state aid program, Supt. Fierke explained, but such aid is not realized until the second year of operation, when unit costs per pupil should be reduced. Of necessity the cost of such a program at the outset can only be estimated. Interested in operating costs, school board members were informed of the possibility that in reevaluating the program, it looks at present as the costs will be reduced in the following months.

A third class for the mentally handicapped is being planned, to be in the Midlothian school.

Educators learned of the many problems associated with a new program of this type, which is being watched by state legislators, giving hope that further legislation will be passed to expand the facilities for the handicapped.

As the program progresses, classes for all types of handicapped children is the goal of these educators.

TEACHER SHORTAGE

The biggest problem is obtaining suitable teachers, the director informed, the most frequently requested type being for the mentally retarded and in the following order for other handicapped children: Speech correctionist, deaf, hard of hearing, crippled, socially maladjusted, blind, special health problems, and teachers of gifted children, least of all.

The most difficult type of teacher to obtain is for the deaf, Singer continued, and for other handicaps in the following order: Blind, maladjusted, hard of hearing, partially seeing, crippled, special health problems, and speech correctionist. For the latter, there are more requests than universities can fill, he said.

This problem is being tackled by interested organizations in a recruiting program whereby scholarships would be offered teachers in the regular classroom interested in the handicapped, to take special courses.

How this program succeeds in south Cook County may have a great deal of bearing on how such programs will be established throughout the state. State legislation will be required so that more aid for education the handicapped can be acquired.

Among the many problems being faced by the school boards and superintendents, are transportation, teachers, and additional classrooms.

One of the biggest obstacles is educating the public to accept the handicapped.

But another most vital part of the program is helping parents of the handicapped to realize the potential of such a child and accept his handicap realistically.

Such a program of necessity is expensive and Singer pointed out that the ultimate purpose is to educate the handicapped to become useful, self-supporting members of society. This can only be accomplished when the program is continued thru high school, which brings up another problem. Without a high school program to follow the elementary education, he warned, the entire purpose could be defeated.

NEED HIGH SCHOOL

High school courses teach these youngsters how to become useful citizens and obtain employment.

The Southwest Cook County Association for Special Education plans to discuss such a program with the high school districts involved.

could not help but be impressed by the parents of handicapped children who gave tangible proof of the need of such a program. Of the three parents present, only one has a child enrolled in the classroom at Worth. Unable to benefit from a normal classroom, the father described the tremendous change in the boy since participating in the special education program. He has high hopes his son will become self-sufficient.

The mother of a six year old boy residents of Tinley Park, a strong advocate for special education, explained how her son suffered brain damage by infection shortly after birth. He is presently attending a private school for the handicapped. This mother believes in special education and is actively involved in working for their cause thru the Bremen Council for the handicapped, an organization of parents and others interested in securing facilities for these un-

EAGLES BRAVES IN BIG TILT

Sandburg Will Be Battling For Sure Share In SWS Title

The Eagles know what it is to have a streak. They are streaking through the SWS sky.

Carl Sandburg has now won six straight games and not been hard pressed in more than two of these six wins. Rain and muddy fields helped to stall the Eagle attack in these games as much as the opposition.

Joe Devine has welded together a unit of youngsters and olders and come with a large group of fine football players.

Larry Callan has done much the same thing at Bremen high school. Both of these teams continue to improve as the season progresses.

Comparative scores are a joke when you are dealing with such teams.

On one ledger the Eagles look like a sure bet to win. However, if you compare a couple other scores you would think that Bremen should be established as a touchdown favorite.

Don't make the mistake of mentioning anyone as a sure winner in this contest. If fact, don't make a choice—unless you are a partisan of either school and then just do it out of loyalty to your school.

The SWS has given many thrills to the fans for this season. Saturday at Orland Park should not change the pattern.

The Eagles are fighting for at least a share of the league crown, something which has not happened in the history of the school. Bremen is almost out of the title picture. The only way the Braves could get a share of the title is—if Homewood—Flossmoor took Rich. Bremen will just be battling to end the season with only two losses.

Joe Devine has a fine diversified squad with any of three to five backs shinning on a given day. You can look for Jim Jeffries and hard running Paul Busch.

However, if these lads are not running—Devine may turn to Dan Wassick, sophomore, or hard driving Randy Cernak. And if these men are not doing too well—there are others, Dick Barry, etc.

Yes, Joe has depth that he has developed. This has been the mainstay of the Sandburg attack. They have not quit and have broken open two or three close games in the second half when Devine found the combination.

If you were to ask Devine; who his stars in the line are—he would answer that there are plenty of good ones. And there are! Joe has more than five fellows that he can throw at the opposition without trepidation.

Rugged Vince DiBenedetto has continually sparked the defensive line. But from week to week you don't dare single out a continual star.

Carl Sandburg has a couple of football units. This is the year that Devine has reserve strength.

A team effort will be the keynote of a Sandburg win or loss.

However, you can look for the seniors of the squad to be out for their best day. Jeffries and Busch will be tough. Jim and Paul have formed the bulk of the "bread and butter" running for the Eagles.

The Braves are not without a strong team spirit and this is the reason for the late season success of Larry Callan's charges. They have become a team!

They sport the leading scorer in the conference in big, fast Rich Norbut. Rich is a stand-up type runner loaded with deception. He does plenty with his hips and eyes.

The Eagles will find him an armful. In fact, they must stop Rich if they will win this important contest.

Last week, against Homewood—Flossmoor the Braves were down and thus if should not be too difficult for Callan to get them up for Sandburg game.

The Braves got some good running from Phil Tunstall and fullback Brian Hillenbran. Brian seems to improve with every contest.

The Bremen line has been the reason for the Braves late season rise. They were not jelled in the early season contests. But they have continued to improve and the opposition has found it very difficult to score.

This is a big part of the game. Callan got a wonderful game out of tackle Dick Klepper last week.

The Eagles want this game as much as they have wanted one this season, but those Redmen don't see things that way and they will be out hunting for Eagle feathers for their victory bonnet.

Who shall win? Well, bleacher coaches you have your sayday. I just don't know who is going to win. I have inclination, but that is all. These are usually wrong.

It will be a great struggle!

Browsing Through The Cold Stove League

By DEAN DALLAS
Semmler Press Sports Editor

Rich and Carl Sandburg moved closer to the SWS Conference crown as they came home with victories last week-end.

Rich seems to be a shoo-in for a tie, but Carl Sandburg could well be in the battle for its life with the Bremen Braves next week at Orland Park. The Eagles lost their first Conference game to Rich and have since been unbeaten.

The Braves lost to Rich by one point on a freak fumble which resulted in a touchdown.

Larry Callan's boys will be fired for this backyard battle. The Eagles have not even shared in a football title in the past and they will be fighting for the first such honor in the history of the school. Bremen won the league crown in 1955.

Joe Devine has welded together a couple of units with a mixture of underclassmen. Joe has the depth that most teams in the SWS lack. This will win—if Sandburg wins.

However, Bremen has shown the class to rise up on a given Saturday and give to the best team a good licking or the scare of its season. Just go and see the game and don't give too much thought to picking a winner.

—O—

Bill Heidrich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Heidrich of New Lenox, kicked the winning point for Beloit. Bill's latest kicking victory was over Ripon in a 7-6 victory.

Bill graduated from Lincoln-Way high school in 1955 where he had played football, basketball, and baseball.

Bill was a member of the National Honor Society and was awarded the American Legion good Citizenship Medal at Lincoln-Way.

—O—

Ken Young, 6-4 senior at Valparaiso University, from Orland Park, will report for basketball practice as one of five returning lettermen. Ken was co-captain of the football team and has been tabbed by writers and experts as the player on the Valpo squad that had the best chance of playing pro football if he so desired.

Ken has been a tower of defense for the last two or three years. He has played the safety position on defensive.

He plays offensive end.

—O—

Beginning Nov. 19 there will be a preview on the Lincoln-Way, and Carl Sandburg basketball squads. Next week—Nov. 26 will be the Bremen preview.

Oak Lawn Wins Conference Cross-Country Bremen Finishes Second; Frosh-Soph To Sandburg

Oak Lawn ran off—literally—with the SWS cross-country title at Lincoln-Way high school last Wednesday. There wasn't very much competition as the Spartans put four finishers in the top seven with Steve Frogue placing first, about 15 yards ahead of Thomas of Bremen.

With Wayne Matulas and Jerry Zinn, placing first and second respectively, the Sandburg Eagles swept home the trophy in the frosh-soph division of the cross-country.

Oak Lawn had Frogue; Dell Ray, fourth; Randy Richardson, fifth; and Dierk Lindeman, seventh; as they amassed an amazing total of 30. Bremen, who finished second, was a full 40 points behind the winners.

Rich nosed out Sandburg by two points for third place, 85-87. Lincoln-Way high school finished fifth with 118. Then came Homewood-Flossmoor with 152, Reavis 162, and Evergreen Park with 176.

Frogue finished the course in 9 minutes in 43 seconds at least 15 yards out ahead of Thomas Bremen.

Tony Kanerski of Carl Sandburg finished in third place to put Carl Sandburg among the leaders.

Van Doren of Reavis finished sixth in the varsity race. Drice and Whalen of Rich finished in eighth and ninth place respectively and John Ragdale of Bremen finished tenth.

Matulas beat out his running mate Zinn by just one second at 10:45. Cenglave of Oak Lawn was third. Trout of Rich came in fourth. TOP THIRTY VARSITY AND FROSH-SOPH FINISHES:

This Week's Predictions

By PEEPIG PIGSKIN

After another week of three right and no wrong our percentage has increased to a 12 right and only 5 wrong. However, this next week could give us trouble.

Sandburg, fighting for the first chance to finish on top of the SWS, will beat the Bremen Braves in the second half by a point or a touchdown. This choice is not so definite. The Braves could make our face red.

Look for a fired-up Lincoln-Way squad to finish the season with a .500 mark as coach Jonas Lashmet has predicted. The Knights will not let up at all this week and should beat Evergreen at home on Friday for 5 points.

This is it!

Lincoln-Way Varsity Seeks To Finish Year With .500

Lincoln-Way will try to make a prophet of its Coach Jonas Lashmet by finishing the season with a 4 and 4 mark and the .500 that was predicted.

Last week the Knights rally fell short in the final quarter as they made a gallant effort to insure the prophecy by mentor Lashmet.

However, they face a good and bad team in Evergreen Park. The Mustangs have beaten some real good teams in the SWS, but have failed to win since taking two straight at the season's beginning.

Lincoln-Way beat Homewood-Flossmoor, 15-6, and then lost to Reavis, 12-7, another heart-breaker.

Not one team in the circuit has given the L-Way squad a decisive beating. In fact, with a bit more luck the Knights just might have been strutting down the avenue with a share of the Conference crown.

The Knights are almost at full strength and should be primed for a final victory over the Mustangs.

Lashmet got plenty of help from sophomore Ron Yunker last week. He should get more.

"Skip" Kruzich and the pass receivers had trouble getting together under the lights last Friday night, but if the weather is fine on Friday, they are due to get together and give some team a real demonstration of a passing offense.

Evergreen Park failed to mount any offense at all last week against the Eagles. In fact, the Mustangs did not gain near 100 yards in the entire game.

John LePore is the only offensive threat that they have and most teams have been putting the stop on John in recent weeks.

The Knights ought to take this game by at least one touchdown.

Senior, Jerry Haehnlein and Howie Mann, the running twins of the early season Lincoln-Way attack will be out to thrill the citizens of Knightland in their last football game.

These diminutive stars have helped the Knights to the greatest season in its history.

Lashmet has come with the small test line in the conference but it has been a stingy one. For its size there is no line in the conference—pound for pound—that can stay with them.

Evergreen should be blinded by the Knights speed.

The final outcome of this game will depend on the surge of Lashmet's line.

Pheasant Season Opens Nov. 11; Runs 20 Days

Hunters will be permitted to shoot three cock pheasants per day during the hunting season commencing at noon, Nov. 11. Alto the present crop of young pheasants in east central Illinois is about 15 to 20 per cent smaller than last year, hunters can still look forward to good shooting, it is predicted by Ronald F. Labisky, assistant wildlife specialist of the Natural History Survey, Urbana.

"In 1958, hunters averaged only 2.5 hours afield to bag each cock," Labisky pointed out. "In that year an unusually large crop of young pheasants made hunting excellent. Despite a poorer hatch this year, hunters will find more than ample supply of cocks when they go afield."

"This year there should be excellent hunting in Ford, Livingston McLean, Iroquois and Champaign counties."

The 1959 season, opening Nov. 11, continues thru Nov. 30. Shooting will be allowed from sunrise to sunset every day except on opening day when shooting is scheduled to begin at noon. Daily bag limit will be three cock pheasants. Possession limit, after the first day, will be six cocks. The shooting of hen pheasants has never been permitted in Illinois.

Palos Boys Beat Orland In Ping- Pong Tournament

Catholics Ready To Begin Work On Church

by MARGOT BARTNIK
Sycamore 8-7742

The Catholic church of Country Club Hills has progressed from the planning stage to a reality in a matter of a few weeks. Final plans have been completed and actual construction should begin this week. The church is to be erected by volunteers who at this writing, number 40 or more. All of the trades are represented, and already materials have been donated. Some of the labor such as pouring the concrete, will be done by contractors. The building will be constructed of frame, with the front in brick. Eventually brick will be added all around the building.

A census has revealed 259 Catholic families in the area. Newly arrived Catholics and those who may have been missed in the census are requested to register. The goal is midnight Mass on Christmas Eve. Already a choir is forming, and boys wishing to serve the altar are asked to contact William Schomburg, SK 8-5399. Until the church is completed, mass continues to be said at Willowview school at 7:30 am. and 8:30 am. each Sunday.

UNITED CHRISTIAN CHURCH

An informal meeting of the board of the United Church elected representatives to serve on the board. They are: Deacons, Charles Van Horn; deaconess, Barbara Oliver; trustees, Robert Brown. Elected chairman of the elders was Richard Bagwell. At the meeting with the Syktas Nov. 2, chairmen were selected for the various functional departments. It also was a matter of general discussion as to plans for the building fund. The choir is hard at work on Christmas music, and is planning a party soon. This group now numbers over 20. On Nov. 8, the Christian churches in Chicagoland will be celebrating 110 years of work in this area. The program which begins at 4 pm. will be marked by a mass choir of over 300 voices, a pageant which tells of the past, and a guest speaker, the speaker is to be Mrs. Edith Green, congresswoman from Oregon, and a prominent member of the denomination. Teas will be held preceding and following the program in the University church and adjoining Disciples Divinity house across from Mandel hall on the University of Chicago campus. The teas will be at 3 and 5:30 p. m. Women from the C.C.H. Christian Women's Fellowship will make cookies and serve with women from other churches.

A full contingent of 20 is expected to attend from the church. The Junior Christian Fellowship (4th and 5th graders) will have a "Hard Times Party" Nov. 13.

The Christian Women's Fellowship met Oct. 28 in Willowview school. Mrs. Carl Timmerman gave the worship. A play entitled "Life Today in the U.S.A." was enacted by members. In the month of November, Joanna circle will visit patients in Tinsley Park hospital. Esther plans to sell candles, and Joanna circle is still selling Christmas cards. Circle meetings for November are: Joanna, Nov. 11 with Mrs. George Shaffner, 4051 W. 185th st.; Esther, Nov. 10 with Mrs. Paul Behringer, 4611 W. 185th place; Naomi, Nov. 11 with Mrs. Donald Wilson, 4710 W. 185th st. The general meeting in November will be moved up one week to Nov. 18 due to the holiday.

BAPTIST CHURCH
With the granting of the building permit, the men of the church have proceeded with some renovating. One partition has been removed, increasing the seating capacity in the auditorium from 54 to 75. A door has been cut upstairs making available two additional Sunday school rooms. The men are now installing a floor furnace. The Conservative Baptist Foreign Missionary Society office in Wheaton has donated a piano. At a special business meeting on Oct. 23, the members of the C.C.H. Baptist church voted to accept the proposed sponsorship of the Lorimer Memorial Baptist church of Dolton.

The Rev. Mr. Reaka will meet weekly with Lorimer's pastor, the Rev. Sam McDill, to discuss plans for growth and expansion. Negotiations are being made to purchase the property now rented by the church. Mr. and Mrs. James R. Newton, Missionary chairman of the C.C.H. Baptist church, 4421 W. 179th st., have returned from Alabama. Mr. Newton's father died Oct. 4 and the funeral was held Oct. 6.

On Oct. 12 and 13, the Rev. Mr. Reaka and Mrs. Reaka attended the state convention for Conservative Baptist churches at Freeport. The Country Club Hills church was officially welcomed into the fellowship. Mrs. Reaka's mother and grandmother, Mrs. D. T. Dawson and Mrs. Alba Adams, came from Georgetown, Ill. to stay with the seven Reaka children during their parents' absence.

On Oct. 17, several carloads of young people went to Thornton High school at Harvey to attend the south suburban youth rally, the Voice of Christian Youth, where they saw the new Gospel Film release "Teen Age Rock." Those attending were: Edward Miller, Micky Powers, Bill Jacks, Bob and Linda Adler, Mrs. Alvin Rice and sons Michael and Joe, Mrs. Oliver Douglas and children Judy Kenneth, and Roger, Mrs. Marlin Douglas and children, Ronnie, Dwight, Murray and Charlotte, Pastor and Mrs. Reaka and children Diana, Lynette, David, Michael, Philip, Rebecca, and Jonathan. Tonight from 8 to 11 pm. at the Lansing Roller rink, Ridge Rd. and Torrence ave., is the autumn rollerade sponsored by Ambassadors for Christ. Skaters should be at least 13 years old. Girls are requested to wear street length skirts or dresses.

CITY COUNCIL

Announcement of the resignation of Louis Simpson as safety engineer was made at the council meeting Oct. 26. He has not been replaced as yet. Suit has been brought against the city and J. E. Merrion Co. for $2,500 by the Homewood-Flossmoor Cab Co. The suit is the result of an accident which occurred Dec. 15, 1958 at 6 am. on the corner of 183rd and Anthony. The suit claims that there was no stop sign nor warning signal posted, and that one of their cabs drove into a drainage ditch and was damaged beyond repair.

The motor fuel credit for the month of September was $870.99. To eliminate the loss of important papers that are loaned out from time to time, the City has purchased a thermo-fax copying machine for the price of $299.

The city has contracted with the J. E. Redmond Co. for removal of snow from the streets during the coming winter. Either Mayor James Nally or Alderman Raymond Gaertner, who is in charge of the public works dept., will call for this service when it is necessary. The City is purchasing a 1/2 or 1/4 ton pickup truck to make small repairs to the roads when necessary. Three fire extinguishers were purchased for the city hall. The state highway dept. is investigating the hazard of the driveway at the Baptist church and putting in safety signs. Police chief Marts is authorized to arrest motorists not stopping for school buses in the area.

1960 vehicle stickers are now available at the city hall. They may be purchased from Mrs. Virginia Bennisson, city clerk, during the hours of 9 am. to 5 pm. on week days and from 9 a.m. to 12 noon on Saturdays. The revenue from the sale of the vehicle stickers will be applied toward snow removal.

An ordinance creating the office of superintendent of streets was introduced. It will be a one year term with no compensation. Appointment will be made by the mayor.

Inquiry has been made regarding the reduction of speeds between Cicero and Crawford, on 183rd st. The decision may be favorable due to the fact that many children cross this street for school. The Vehicle Tax ordinance, the Civil Defense ordinance, Garbage and Refuse ordinance, and Licensing ordinance were all incorporated into the municipal code. In regard to the garbage ordinance, there may still be some who are unaware that no garbage container can be left at the collection point after 7 pm. on the day of collection.

Alderman Clint Nelson reported that a letter has been sent to the Bureau of Census in Washington, D. C. requesting authorization of a proposed municipal census. This census figure is used to get payment of the motor fuel tax. The 1960 Federal census will begin next spring. Mayor Nally proposed the appointment of three of the five members needed for the play ground committee. Appointed for terms of five, four and three years respectively, were: Elmer B. Wulf, George Shaffner, and Mrs. John Thomas. The two remaining appointments are to be made in the near future.

The police chief is operating full time. The official police number is SY 8-3191. Residents are reminded an ordinance forbids dogs running at large. Dogs will be picked up and a court appearance required by the owner of dog. Applications for volunteer police are now available at the city hall. Mrs. Wm. Marquardsen will be working in the building department on Wednesdays, from 1 to 5 pm. Building permits are required for any alteration and are to be posted on the street side of building, prior to the start of construction.

WOMAN'S CLUB

Mrs. John Thomas, president of the Woman's club, announces that a special account has been opened at the Bremen State Bank at Tinsley Park for the purpose of a Community Center. The club is planning its "dutch treat" dinner for Thursday, Dec. 10, at the Lincoln Heights restaurant at 8 pm. Each member is asked to bring a 50¢ grab bag gift. Entertainment will be provided by the club. Wednesday, Nov. 18, new members and old members are invited to a tea at the Willowview school gymnasium. All new members will be guests of honor on this occasion.

SENIOR TEENS

Parents' Night was held Oct. 23 at Willowview school. It was agreed there are very few activities for our local teens. A future program is being planned. On the evening of Oct. 26, the boys met with Mr. Berdan while the girls met at the home of Mrs. George Shaffner. Both groups discussed the problem seriously. The girls are interested in doing volunteer work at nearby hospitals. The boys are naturally interested in activities which include sports. No definite plans have been made as yet. However, all the teens are looking forward to the meeting of Nov. 13 at Willowview, when Police Chief Marts will introduce himself and address the group. One definite event still in the planning stage is a Christmas dance. Let's co-operate with our young people and aid them in any way we can.

PERSONALS

Steven Forsgren, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Forsgren, 18041 Thomas is playing one of the leading roles in "Inherit the Wind", a play to be given by the Chicago Heights Drama group Nov. 13, 14 and 15, at Washington school auditorium, Chicago Heights. Steven is 12 years old and in the 7th grade at Willowview school. This is his first major part in a production of this kind. His mother, Marge Forsgren, has had considerable experience in dramatic acting.

Mrs. Forsgren is in charge of properties and is looking for a real live monkey. Anyone loaning a monkey for the three performances shall be given the part of organ grinder, if he or she wishes it. Three other residents of C.C.H. are also involved in this production, which incidentally is almost sold out. Mrs. Charles White, 17827 Baker, and Mrs. Joseph L. Merrion, 18101 Baker, are also working on properties; while Joseph Merrion is assisting with scenery. Two other plays are planned for the season. "Separate Tables", Feb. 19, 20 and 21, and "The King and I" is slated for May 20, 21 and 22. A season ticket entitles the holder to a reserved seat for all three plays. Director is Joseph DeLorenzo of Homewood for "Inherit the Wind."

Leslie Roll, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Roll, Jr., 18020 Baker, is recovering from the mumps. A unit meeting of the League of Women Voters was held in the home of Mrs. James Quinlan, 18110 Baker, Oct. 28. Mrs. Dorothy Provus and Mrs. Grace Bloomer, both of Homewood, spoke on foreign policy and the United Nations. A tape of an interview with Henry Cabot Lodge on Russia's views of the United Nations followed the talks. The 10 women present ended the evening with refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Cronin 18910 Anthony, and their four children, Anne, 4; Patrick 3; Richard 2 and Edward, 6 weeks moved into their new home Oct. 29. Mr. Cronin is a brother of James Cronin of 18111 Baker.

No surgery is indicated at the present time for Edward McPherson, 18221 Anthony. Mr. McPherson has been in Ingalls Memorial hospital for several days for observation and tests. Mrs. McPherson has had a difficult time while her husband was in the hospital. All four of their children were seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown, 18600 Baker, gave a birthday supper for their son, Dale on his 6th birthday, Oct. 21. Children present were: Ricky Rikard, Scott Harrington, Willie Carellas, Philip Livingston, Andrew Panneck, Kenny Douglas, Danny and Alan Wiessner.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Felber had a very agreeable time, over the Halloween weekend. Mr. Felber drove Mrs. Felber and little Susan, 2 years old, to Chillicothe, Ill. to visit her aunt and from there Mr. Felber went duck hunting. They all returned Sunday evening.

An impromptu Halloween party was held at the John Hennessey's 4720 181st st., Oct. 30. Guests came in costume. Present were: Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. John Honz, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Millon, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. George Barry, and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Raddatz.

Vandalism has been occurring from time to time throughout the area. Latest reports come from Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Raddatz, 18140 Mary Ann Lane. Upon awakening one morning, they found a heavy, two-seater merry go round swing in their swimming pool, which was partially filled at the time. It took three men to lift the swing out of the pool and over the high fence surrounding it. The swing belonged to Mr. and Mrs. Skinkis, 18150 Mary Ann, who also found their children's toys trampled and smashed in the sand box. From another neighbor comes still another report of mischief, their jack-o-lantern which was on display in the front yard, a couple of days before Halloween was smashed and trampled. Broken bottles on the streets are a common occurrence, residents complain.

"No one acquires a love of liberty working for government. You either bring it along with you or you never have it."—Lowell Mason.

Dental Health

DENTAL CARE FOR HANDICAPPED CHILDREN

Children with crippling diseases, like all other children, may have dental disorders. But dental care for these youngsters poses special problems.

A victim of cerebral palsy, for example, has a difficult time in the dentist's chair because spastic movements may result in injury to himself.

A new drug called mephenesin has recently been developed which may help solve this problem by producing a degree of relaxation in the cerebral palsied patient.

Dr. Manuel M. Album, chief of dental services, Philadelphia Society for Crippled Children, said repeated trials show the drug will relieve muscle spasms and rigidity and yet have no depressant effect on the brain.

Another special problem for the dentist is the child with a cleft palate. This condition results when the vault of the mouth, which forms embryonically in two sections, fails to close properly before birth.

Today, dentists are able to construct prosthetic appliances which cover the imperfect development.

Usually, the covering is part of a partial denture placed over the remaining upper teeth. The prosthesis gives the child a normal appearance and permits him to speak clearly.

Later, as the child gets older, surgery can sometimes close the vault.

Another special problem is facial defects caused by accidents. This calls for restorative dentistry with dentist working closely with a plastic surgeon.

Broken teeth resulting from football or boxing also require special dental attention. Dentists advise students who take part in sports to wear rubber mouth protectors. (Next: Bad habits and Teeth)

Drafts Measure Ending Septic Tanks In Mokena Subdividers Start Project East Of Mokena

An ordinance providing for condemnation of septic tanks and requiring the householder to discharge sanitary wastes into the village sewer system is now being prepared by Mokena's village attorney, Raymond Hoolehan.

Orders to prepare such an ordinance was given by the village board. The measure will include a provision for a notice to be served on those persons in violation of the ordinance giving them 30 days in which to make connections with the sewer. The ordinance will also provide a penalty, it was said. The penalty would be a fine of $10 a day for every day the property was not connected with the sewer after the expiration of the notice period.

Mayor James Marti has requested the committees concerned to discuss additional provisions for building permits.

A subdivision has been started east of Mokena with an initial goal of 500 homes, according to reports here. The development is located east of U.S. 45 and south of 191st street and is reportedly backed by the group that talked of building a subdivision with 2,000 homes immediately adjacent to Mokena.

The Mokena planning commission opposed development of the territory immediately east of the village as a residential area on the grounds that it would be more advantageous to the community if it was devoted to industry.

The subdivision now started along the east side of U.S. 45 is said to be in the Summit Hill school district.

The couple received many gifts of money and lovely cards from their many friends and relatives.

ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Johnson, 1595 Hewes ave., Crete, announce the engagement of their daughter Doris Yvonne, to Mr. Victor Dean Propp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor C. Propp, of 16958 Sayre ave., Tinley Park. No date has been set for the wedding.

Building Character Is Subject At Home Bureau

"Guiding Growth of Character" was the subject of the Bremen Home Bureau lesson presented at the Oct. 22 meeting held in the home of Mrs. H. A. Bepck. Co-hostesses were Mrs. D. C. Reynolds and Mrs. J. M. Chalden. The lesson was given by Mrs. Daniel Angstadt and Mrs. William Lake.

Points emphasized in the lesson were that a child's character and sense of moral values depends mostly upon the attitudes a child develops. For that reason, it was stated, it is more important to learn how your child feels about a situation than how he reacted toward that incident. "Character is an achievement, not a gift," it was learned. Six qualities of character essential for maturity, which were compiled by Dr. William Menninger, are sincerity, personal integrity, humility, courtesy, wisdom and charity.

Christmas cards were displayed at the meeting. A lesson on these will be given at a future date. Mrs. Donald Pope will give the silk screen lesson in her home on Thursday, Nov. 5, at 8 p.m., assisted by Mrs. Bert Holup, to interested women.

All who plan to take the lesson on "How to Make Dried Flower Pictures" should start saving garden flowers and weeds. These should be picked after 5 p.m. on a dry, sunny day, placed between paper towels and put between the leaves of a heavy book. They should dry in about two weeks.

Mrs. Claradell Upham will give the November lesson of "Civil Defense at Home." The date for the meeting has not been set as yet.

Guests of the evening were Mrs. John Ban and Mrs. Robert Worts.

The Lincoln-Way Band officers recently elected, the new 1959-60 section leaders and assistants. The leaders and assistants are as follows: Flute: Penny Fiegen; leader and Gwen Doering assistant. Clarinets: Lois Sluiter, leader and Sharon Sme go, assistant. Alto and Bass Clarinets, bassons, and oboes: Sharon Jedlick, leader and Leslie Ekedahl, assistant. Saxophones: Richard Zatteau, leader and Lou Ann Camerillo, assistant. Cornets: Shirley Sievert, leader and Charles Miller, assistant. Horns: Jonelle Robinson, leader and Gene Chline, assistant. Trombones: Dick Hammond, leader and Mike Dina, assistant. Basses: Lester Michael, leader and Reece Jones, as-

Kevin McGivern, Lincoln-Way history teacher, and the Lincoln-Way History club entertained about one hundred social science teachers from Will and Cook counties. The Joliet area teachers made some preparation for next year's hosting of the state social studies teachers convention. The Civil War Round Table club of Park Forest gave the program for the evening. They have a demonstration of war weapons of the civil war. Mr. McGivern is the vice president of the group this year. FOREIGN EXCHANGE PROGRAM Mrs. Coleman, state president of the American Field Services, addressed the Lincoln-Way PTG on Wednesday, Nov. 4. Mrs. Coleman brought several foreign exchange students and two summer returnees with her. The summer returnees are American students who spent last summer in Europe. These students assisted Mrs. Coleman in presenting the program. The AFS group maintains a foreign exchange scholarship plan which was begun by some ex U.S. servicemen who felt that world understanding would be fostered by such a program. The members of the Lincoln-Way PTG also had an opportunity to meet Lincoln-Way's new foreign exchange student, Miss Hanna Heyman from Hanover, Germany. Hanna was sent to Lincoln-Way by the AFS. MU ALPHA THETA The Lincoln-Way chapter of Mu Alpha Theta recently elected their officers. They are: Bill Morrison, and members of the Eastern Area Council. Ways and means chairman Mrs. Clarence Lauffer, reported that a "Family Fun Night" is being planned for Dec. 4. Mrs. John Hansen reporting for the membership chairman, told of the PTA membership contest, which ended Oct. 23 and was won by Mrs. Emile Swartz, 2nd and 3rd grade class with 86 per cent. Room count was taken and the attendance award was won by Mrs. Abraham's first grade class. Mrs. Loren Collins, program chairman introduced Mrs. Leonard Robinson, president of the Eastern Area Council who in turn introduced fellow officers. They conducted their monthly meeting as a means of explaining the duties and functions of the Council. J. A. Bissel, council program chairman, conducted a panel discussion on "Conversation Around the Dinner Table". Some very interesting views were brought out. It was very definitely decided that conversation should be on the pleasant side. TV seemed to be a big blem. Children eating meals in front of the TV or gobbling their food to get back to a favorite program. Discussion seemed to center on childrens conversation when someone added that adults spelling in the course of conversation was in bad taste also. Discipline at the dinner table also was discussed. Refreshments were served, by the seventh grade mothers.

STRENGTH FOR THESE DAYS
from The Bible
Let not kindness and truth forsake thee; bind them about thy neck; write them upon the tablet of thy heart: So shalt thou find favor and good understanding in the sight of God and man. — (Proverbs 3:3-4.)
Worth often is indicated by durability. That which is useful endures. That which becomes useless is cast aside and something better takes its place. In the 2,200 years since kindness and truth were prescribed in the Book of Proverbs, none of the world's wise men has found better precepts to serve as guideposts in living. Can anything replace them?

Winter Driving A Menace

The drop of the mercury to below freezing and the snow showers that occurred last week indicate only too clearly that winter is not too far off and that motorists should not only prepare their cars for cold weather driving but it is also a good idea to overhaul their mental attitude.

One must remember that rain in winter doesn't just wet streets and highways as it does in the warmer months. It also has a habit of forming ice. The person whose mind says this is just a wet street and treads accordingly on the accelerator only to find there is ice in that wetness may come to with a nurse and doctor working on him—if he comes to, that is.

Safety experts warn that normal speeds often are too fast for winter driving. They advise that you have your car checked to make certain that it is in good condition; that your tires are good; that your windshield wipers, defrosters are operating properly, and your brakes are O. K.

Don't drive with windows frosted over and depend on a peep hole to provide ample vision.

Get the feel of the road, the experts urge. They point out that by cautiously trying out brakes and pressing gently on the gas pedal one can learn how slippery the pavement is and adjust speed accordingly.

Avoid "tailgating," (the practice of following the car ahead too closely) so you have ample room if you have to stop in a hurry. "Tailgating" is hazardous enough on clear, dry roads but under winter conditions it is deadly.

And when you stop don't jam on your brakes. Pump them. Rapid and intermittent application of brakes that allows one to maintain rolling traction that gives steering control is advocated by the safety people. Jamming on the brakes will throw the car into an uncontrollable skid.

Snow, ice, early darkness, spattered windshields are all facts that contribute to accidents in winter driving. The National Safety Council has come up with some statistics that make unpleasant reading but they should be kept in mind.

One out of every six fatal accidents occurs when it is rainy, foggy or snowy.

In one out of four fatal crashes the road is wet, snow covered, icy or muddy.

Two out of five fatalities take place when the driver's vision is obstructed by rain, snow or sleet on the windshield.

Seat belts are advocated for driving at all times but especially in winter.

The best protection, it was pointed out, is for a driver to admit to himself that winter driving is treacherous and dangerous at best; and that every driver is a danger and to use care and caution when ever he is on the road.

On Second Thot

BY GLENN F. LOGAN

From the mail that funnels into the waste basket that stands beside the desk of this writer it is apparent that practically every organization society, manufacturer and business has a special day, or week or month in which they extol their aims, purposes and products.

There are more of these special days, weeks and months than the 365, 52 and 12 that appear on the calendar so if another period should be set aside for a specific purpose it wouldn't disturb things.

What we have in mind is a week dedicated to the elimination of box elders.

There are some who will argue that a week is not sufficient time for such a task, worthy as it is. But in dispatch lies the secret of success. To extend the time would simply mean that people would procrastinate.

Give them a month and what will happen? People will just sit back and say, "Oh, there is plenty of time," and put off having their saws sharpened or their axes ground, or breaking out their peavies, flannel shirts, caulked boots and other gear utilized by the well equipped lumber jack.

But if a person lives in a neighborhood where box elders grow and is even now flicking off box elder bugs that are crawling around his neck or up his ankles, he is likely to welcome immediate action.

There is quite an infestation of these bugs this year. They are bad every season but this one is worse than usual. No doubt these red and black creatures that walk, trot, gallop and fly have a long Latin name but the only thing I ever heard them called was box elder bugs. Of course, one usually hears a few adjectives along with the name but box elder bugs appear to be it.

Where one finds box elder trees one also finds these bugs. There are box elder trees in Mokena. There are no available figures on how many but we would say offhand that too many would be a reasonable answer.

How many leaves there are on a box elder is a question we can't answer but the number must be enormous, especially on some of the big trees. We would venture to guess, however, that the number of bugs will outnumber the leaves, 3 to 1.

The frost seems to be taking a toll of the swarm out of doors but the bugs that have moved inside are doing very well, thank you, despite sprays, swatters and baseball bats.

They crawl up the walls in platoons and then deploy as skirmishers when they reach the ceiling. Whether it is they become tired of walking or heights make them dizzy, I don't know, but the datted things let go before reaching the other wall and come tumbling down, landing on desks, typewriters, heads, hats, hands, necks and copy.

Trees of Heaven are pestiferous things and anyone who has lived in country where the sassafras takes over probably is ready to debate the question of whether they are worse than the box elders.

Trees of Heaven give off unpleasant odors—some of them do anyway—and sassafras will march right into the house if one isn't alert—but they don't have bugs.

So let's get busy folks. Down with the box elders! A bas the bugs.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Sir:

I am in favor of the referendum, bringing it up to be voted on by the people of Tinley Park, and the voting date to be held off until we get all the information from the Federal Housing and Home Finance Agency regarding size, interest, hidden cost and elimination of the fiscal agent.

Let's leave the politics out of this and get our sewers.

Social Security Has Big Payroll In Will Co— $8.5 Million A Year

As of February, 1959, old age, survivors and disability insurance monthly benefits were being paid in Will County at the rate of $8,585,988 a year, according to Harold Whiteside, manager of the Joliet Social Security District office.

"This is an increase of about 21 per cent over last year," Whiteside said.

Whiteside stressed that while the benefits are intended primarily for the beneficiary's economic security, the payment of Social Security benefits at the rate of $8,585,988 a year in Will county helps business in the community generally because most of the money is spent immediately on food, clothing and other necessities. "In February Social Security benefits were being paid nationally at a rate of nearly 10 billion dollars annually."

"Payments to a retired worker with no dependents receiving benefits averaged $67.50 a month nationally in February, and to a retired couple $119.40 a month," Mr. Whiteside said. The average for a widow with two young children was $165. The maximum payment for a family is $254.

"There were several reasons for the increase in beneficiaries over last year," Whiteside said. The long-term growth of the aged population and of the proportion of the aged population eligible for benefits are important factors in the continuing increase in the number of beneficiaries. Other reasons for the increase of beneficiaries are found in the provisions of the 1958 Amendments to the Social Security Act which now make it possible for the wife, dependent husband, and children of a disabled worker beneficiary to receive monthly payments. These amendments also provide for benefits to aged dependent parents of a deceased worker even though other survivors are entitled to payments.

Moreover, Whiteside pointed out it is now easier for a disabled worker to qualify for benefit payments. He no longer needs Social Security credit for 1 1/2 years of work in the last three years before he became disabled. If he worked under Social Security for at least 5 years out of the 10 before he became disabled he may be eligible for disability benefits.

"Increases in average benefit payments reflect the 7% raise in benefit amounts which became effective with the checks for January, 1959," Whiteside said. Average disability benefit payments also reflect the elimination of the so-called "offset" provision in the old law. Disability benefits under Social Security are now payable in full even though benefits are also payable under state workmen's compensation or under some other Federal government program.

The table below shows the number of each type of benefit being paid in Will County, as of Feb. 28, 1959, the date of the latest available tabulation:

Beneficiary Group	No. of Beneficiaries
Retired worker	5,774
Wife or husband	1,884
Widow or widower	1,232
Mothers with children	320
Children	1,400

For the entire state of Illinois, Social Security payments at the end of February, 1959, are being paid to 732,263 beneficiaries at the rate of $47,837,058 per month. Social Security benefits totaling $536,391,000 were paid in Illinois during 1958.

Give white sauce a delicate flavor boost by scalding the milk with a slice of onion or celery stalk added; remove onion or celery before adding the milk to the butter and flour mixture.

Urges Motorists Driving In Dark Use Extra Care

As Illinois communities return to central standard time, the Chicago Motor Club cautions motorists to be alert "because accidents go up when the sun goes down."

The club stressed that three out of five traffic fatalities occur at night although only 30 per cent of driving is done during darkness. With the return to standard time on Oct. 25, the club pointed out that darkness would fall during the late afternoon when both pedestrians and motorists are returning home from work.

To reduce accidents, the Club's safety and traffic engineering department suggests:

Cut down driving speeds at night. Be especially watchful for pedestrians. A pedestrian wearing dark clothing is hard to see under artificial light.

Keep head lights and windshields clean to provide maximum visibility.

Check tail lights, turn signals, and high and low head light beams to make sure they are working properly.

Make allowance for your age. Recovery from glare is slower when you are more than 30 years old.

Motor vehicle accidents killed 36,700 and injured 2,825,000 on U.S. highways during 1958.

Scrubbing keeps natural gas
the cleanest fuel in town...

Suspended in natural gas, as it comes from the wellhead, are a variety of hydrocarbon liquids, water and fine particles released from the deep-down formations of the earth. These are removed, for the most part, when the gas passes through processing plants before being delivered into our pipelines.

But, some minute particles linger on. And as the gas moves through the pipeline, it can pick up added foreign solids and liquid condensate in the pipe.

So, to filter out these elements, we "scrub" the gas at compressor stations along the line to assure that it will be clean on delivery. That means frequent "scrubbings" in tank-like devices that are called — aptly enough — "scrubbers."

There are three types of scrubbers. The "dry" scrubber (at top) is a 40-inch diameter tank containing a hundred or more small tubes through which the gas is whirled. As the gas goes through, foreign particles and liquids, being heavier, separate and drop out. The horizontal scrubber (just above) uses oil-coated metal surfaces to trap foreign matter — plus a section that works on the dry scrubber principle.

The third is a three-phase oil-bath separator, in which the gas is first bubbled through an oil bath, then spun dry in a centrifugal separator, and, finally, passed through a mist extractor.

Scrubbed and rescrubbed many times, the gas we deliver to our customers—utility companies in a dozen or more states—can truly be said to be the "cleanest gas in town."

This is one of a series of monthly reports on the diversified activities of Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation.

Chief Nurses In State's Hospitals Convene At Tinley

The chief nurses' meeting of the Department of Public Welfare was held at Tinley Park State hospital, Oct. 19 and 20. The meeting convened at 1 p.m. with Miss Florence Newell, Chief of Nursing Service for the Department of Public Welfare in charge of the group. Chief Nurses from all of the state's mental hospitals were in attendance. They took up most of the meeting time with further discussion of the new, proposed Nursing Service Procedure manual.

Since the first of the year, Miss Newell has been in the processing of organizing committees to prepare a uniform manual for use in all mental hospitals. The manual is in its final stages of preparation and is expected to be ready for circulation to all hospitals sometime this next year.

The manual will serve as a guide for the nursing service in each hospital. It will be used primarily by nurses and psychiatric aides. The Nursing Service manual is the first of a series of three volumes on the nursing care of patients in mental hospitals in Illinois.

There will be eight sections to the manual, representing all areas in nursing service. It is intended to be used as a guide and reference for both registered nurses and non-professional nursing personnel. While this manual was prepared principally with psychiatric patients in mind, it is readily adaptable to the care of patients in general hospitals.

The chief nurses in attendance were: Wilbur Yates, Anna State hospital; Mrs. Louanna Martin, Alton; Miss Fredia Axom, Chicago; Mrs. Margaret Kammer, Dixon; Mrs. Hortense Williams, East Moline; Mrs. Mary Lou Louve, Elgin; Miss Nolan, Galesburg; Roy Wright Jacksonville; Mrs. Charline Ziemer, Kankakee; Mrs. Lorraine Bagby, Manteno; Mrs. Aileen Zook, Peoria; Walter Glick, Lincoln; Mrs. Pearl Conway, Tinley Park and Mrs. Florence Newell, Chief of Nursing Service, Springfield.

Will Instruct Course On Mosquito Control In Atlanta

W. J. Buchanan, engineer-manager, South Cook County Mosquito Abatement District, has been invited to instruct in a special course devoted to mosquito control to be given at Atlanta, Ga. Nov. 2-6.

Sponsored by the U. S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, the course is designed to provide public health personnel from all parts of the country with advanced training in the control of mosquitoes. The control of mosquito-borne diseases will also be stressed.

Buchanan, who was selected for this teaching assignment because of his extensive experience in combating mosquitoes, has supervised the organization and operation of the mosquito control program in the 340-square mile area in the South Cook County District since its inception about five years ago. He will discuss the subject of larvicidal control of mosquitoes. It is upon this principle of attacking and killing mosquitoes as larva where they breed rather than waiting until they are flying adults that the mosquito nuisance is being abated in this area.

The student body for the course will be comprised of health personnel who are professionally concerned with insect and rodent control with priority given to those engaged in control problems requiring accurate identification of mosquitoes.

The course is a part of the concerted U. S. Public Health Service effort to control mosquitoes in all sections of the United States.

Taxi Cab Co. Sues City For Loss Of Cab

(CNS) Country Club Hills has been sued by a taxi cab company owner who was temporarily knocked out of business when his only cab hit an open ditch in the city one early December morning last year and was destroyed.

The plaintiff, Carl C. Eke, doing business as the Homewood-Flossmoor Cab company, is seeking $2,500 in damages from the city and J. E. Merriam & Company, the construction firm that dug the ditch.

An employee was driving the taxi, a 4-door sedan, southbound in Anthony avenue when the cab hit an open ditch spanning the avenue on the south side of 183rd st. about 6 a.m. on Dec. 15, 1958 according to the suit filed in Circuit court.

The construction firm failed to put warning lights there and there was no stop sign at the intersection, the suit charges. It charges that due to the carelessness and negligence of the defendants, Eke suffered a loss of his taxi and was required to hire a cab to continue his business.

Country Club Hills Decides On Later Curfew

At its regular meeting Monday night the Country Club Hills city council voted to modify its new curfew ordinance.

Originally it provided that all youngsters under 16 must be off the streets by 9:30 p.m. It was believed this was too stringent as some youngster groups have meetings that run until 9:30. Therefore, on a motion by Alderman James O'Connell, the curfew hour was moved to 10 o'clock.

The council decided to purchase a used pick-up truck if it can condition—either quarter or half ton. The vehicle will be used by the street department in repairing city thoroughfares.

TREATMENT CENTER AIDS ALCOHOLICS

A pilot plant, the Chicago Alcoholic Treatment Center at 3026 S. California ave., is the first such municipally supported institution in the United States. Opened two and a half years ago, the purpose of the center is to rebuild the lives of alcoholics, providing the preliminary medical and psychiatric treatment necessary to restore them to bodily and mental health thru programs which will afford the most favorable conditions for later social adjustments.

The patient must wish to be admitted, to be treated for a reasonable period, to rebuild his life and must be willing to submit to screening procedures before being admitted.

He must need help and be willing to accept it under conditions which are most favorable to his successful treatment.

The center has a staff of professional people to help the alcoholic. Arthur J. Ward is the director. A field representative assists patients in securing employment.

William Penn mapped the streets for Philadelphia in 1682.

One of the rewarding aspects of Agricultural Extension work, is the participation by local people in developing plans for the County Extension Educational program. Program planning has been an important part of the extension office the past month or so. Over one hundred interested farmers, homemakers, and other community spirited individuals have attended meetings and offered their ideas for a program for the coming year.

The most recent meeting was held with 4-H leaders taking a careful look at the 4-H program and making recommendations for next year and the years to come. Even though the central theme of 4-H work is the project, many activities, including health, public speaking, demonstrations, officers' training programs, camping and music appreciation are included in the 4-H program to add interest and variety. We, in the extension office are proud of the local people who devote their time and effort to the guidance of young people in 4-H clubs throughout the county. We are particularly pleased to have them take such great interest in the program, that they are willing to help develop future programs and offer suggestions for change.

The University of Illinois, College of Agriculture Experiment Station, has released the fourth issue of a publication entitled "Illinois Research". This publication will be sent free to anyone who requests that their name be placed on the mailing list. This can be done by writing to the Agricultural Information Office, 112 Mumford Hall, University of Illinois, Urbana.

Announced in this issue is the new curriculum at the college, entitled "Agricultural Industry". This course combines training in the field of business as well as agriculture. The need for this type of course stems from the fact that nearly half of the Ag College graduates are employed in some kind of business related to agriculture. Of the total labor force of more than 62 million, an estimated 10 million are on farms and about 15 million are in businesses which produce for or serve farmers, or which process and distribute farm products. Other topics in this issue as taken from the table of contents are: "Effects of Weather on Corn and Soybean Yields", "Christmas Trees - A New Crop on Illinois Farms", "Why does Cheese Taste Cheesy?"

Beloit, an independent, coeducational, liberal arts college, was founded in 1846. The school's main campus, on bluffs overlooking the Rock River, is dotted with 23 prehistoric Indian mounds. Among notable campus buildings are Logan Museum of Anthropology, Wright Art Center, Eaton Chapel, and 112 year old Middle College, the oldest college building northwest of Chicago.

The New Lenox students are Norma and William Heidrich, daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Heidrich, 925 Ogden road. Norma is a freshman and a pledge of Delta Gamma social sorority and William is a member of Beta Theta Pi, social fraternity and of Beloit College Players and of varsity football, in which he is lettered.
